

BY CRANSTON & NORRIS,
127 THAMES STREET.

TUESDAY MORNING, JUNE 21, 1851.

The Committee of Arrangements for the Fourth of July once more appeal to the citizens to contribute towards the fund for the celebration of the day in the manner already stated. They will require about fifty dollars more, in order to carry out all their arrangements. They feel a delicacy in calling upon persons to contribute, particularly as they have no personal interest in the matter, and are only desirous of carrying out their plans in a manner worthy of the occasion. They are confident that the money could not be spent to better advantage than for the purpose proposed; and they trust that all who are friendly to the cause of Education will contribute something, and hand it to the Committee, without delay.

CHROMATIC PAINTING.—Mr. Albert Bierstadt has opened an Academy at Masonic Hall, corner of Church and School streets, for instruction in the above art. Mr. B. claims an improvement on the old method of Chromatic Painting, by which he is enabled to produce pictures of great elegance, which might readily be mistaken at a short distance for line-engravings or mezzotints. We recently examined some specimens at his rooms, and much admired their great beauty, one, especially, an elaborately finished landscape colored to nature, a peculiarity, we believe, that the old system of Crayon drawing does not admit of, was well worthy of note, bearing a strong resemblance to fine painting in water colors. We would direct the attention of people desirous of instruction in drawing to this branch of art, combining, likewise the accomplishment of painting. Mr. Bierstadt is a young gentleman well skilled in his profession, and we hope he may receive liberal encouragement from our citizens; his terms are reasonable, and his rooms are now open for visitors, where he himself will further inform them of the particular merits of his art.

Just stop in at Young's, Park Saloon, and order some of those fresh delicious Strawberries, which he receives every morning from the Island. They have not been picked from the vines more than an hour or two, when he receives them; they are the largest Strawberries we have ever seen.

Persons who desire a cup of strong and delightfully flavored Coffee, should go to the Drug store of C. G. C. Hazard, next door north of the Post Office, and purchase a package of Hummel's Essence of Coffee. One package, which costs only twelve and a half cents, will make as much coffee as four pounds of store coffee, while the flavor is much more delicious than the latter. Give it a trial.

STRAWBERRIES.—We had the pleasure, yesterday, of receiving a box of Strawberries, which we suspect are the finest that have made their appearance here this season. We will not say how large the box was, but the strawberries were large, ripe and delicious. They came from the store of Mr. Wilson, better known as Doctor Wilson.

The steamship Arctic arrived at New York Sunday evening, but brings nothing of importance.

OCEAN HOUSE.—We learn that Mr. Geo. Thomas, formerly of the Astor House, New York, and the Tremont House, Boston, will officiate at Weaver's popular hotel at Newport during the ensuing summer. George has hosts of friends, and we congratulate the proprietor in securing the services of so experienced, gentlemanly and valuable an assistant.—Boston Mail.

Riot Expected.—A despatch from Argyle, N. Y., dated on the 20th says: "A despatch, just received by express messenger, respecting Matthew Carrigan, who was sentenced to be hung to-day, has caused much excitement. Some of the military declare he shall be hung, and threaten to tear down the jail.—The Irish are out in strong force, determined to protect him. What turn the affair will take is yet uncertain."

President Fillmore, accompanied by the Secretary of the Interior, left Washington for Old Point Comfort, on Saturday. He will be absent about six days. The authorities of Norfolk and Portsmouth, Va., invite him to visit those places.

Deut. Thomas Sands, of the revenue service, has been promoted to a captaincy and ordered to New Orleans.

HONORS OF THE WORLD'S FAIR.—The Boston Transcript publishes a series of interesting and amusing letters, in relation to the World's Fair in London, from Dr. J. V. C. Smith. The following anecdotes are related in one of his letters of late date:

A portly fellow, with an eye-glass pressed into the orbit, inquired of another, in the act of inspecting the properties of Mr. Clapp's very beautiful coach [from Pittsfield, whether "the Americans ever rode in carriages?" Another sapient, with pointed hair and carrying a gold-headed stick, asked a visitor from the other side if "the Rocky mountains could be seen from New York?"

As Odd Proposition.—In the New-Hampshire House of Representatives yesterday, a proposal was made and entertained, to enact a law for the protection of the people of the State against imposition and injury by persons pretending to hold intercourse with departed spirits. "The people of New-Hampshire must be in a bad way if they cannot protect themselves against such impositions. Why not revive the old laws against witchcraft? Why not have a law protecting bachelors, young and old, against the wiles of marriageable daughters and their mammae."—Boston Transcript.

UNNATURAL PARENTS.—A revolting affair took place yesterday on board of the ship Rappahannock, lying at pier No. 5, North River, which exhibits the inhuman and unnatural treatment of parents. It seems that the vessel arrived on the 18th from Liverpool, and, after the passengers had all left the ship, the mate went through between decks to see if all was clear when, on looking into one of the berths, he beheld a dead child, about fifteen months old, lying therein, supposed to have belonged to a family by the name of Hughes, whose parents abandoned it after death.—New York Herald, 18th.

"John, how I wish it was as much the fashion to trade wives as it is to trade horses!"

"Why so, Timothy?"

"I'd cheat somebody most shockin' bad afore night."

BEAUTIFUL PRAYER.—"Lord bless and preserve my husband; let his life be long and blessed, comfortable and holy; and let me also become a great blessing and comfort unto him, a sharer in all his joys and sorrows, in all his triumphs and all his sorrows, a meet helper for him in all the accidents and chances of the world; make me amiable forever in his eyes, and very dear to him. Unite his heart to me in the dearest union of love and holiness, and mine to him in all the sweetness of charity and compliance. Keep me from all ungentleness, all discontentedness and unreasonableness and unseasonableness of passion and humor, and make me humble and obedient, charitable and loving, patient and contented, useful and observant, that we may delight in each other according to thy blessed word and ordinance, and both of us may rejoice in thee, having our portion in the love and service of God forever."

RIOT AND BLOODSHED.—A party of about one hundred young men from Philadelphia went on an excursion to Red Bank, N. J., on Tuesday, and becoming intoxicated, created a fearful riot at a public house where they were carousing. Mr. John A. Diver, the landlord, was stabbed, and it is said will probably die from his wounds. A number of other persons were seriously injured. The windows and furniture of the house were all broken, and the money drawer robbed of about $150. Seventeen of the principal rioters were arrested and committed to prison.

The Webb and Willis affair was again before the Superior Court of New York on the 20th inst., and after considerable discussion by the Counsel on both sides, Gen. Webb authorized Mr. Ketchum to say, that he would seal up the letters under oath, and send them to Mrs. Coddington, to be destroyed by her, upon the production of a stipulation by Mr. Willis that he would not institute proceedings against him. Thus the case remains at present.

By the fire at San Francisco not a single place of public worship of any kind has been destroyed.—Every gambling house, with the exception of three, were destroyed.

Bisectile.—In the month of February, 1852, there will be five Sundays. A like circumstance will not again occur until 1853.

MARY SHAW—now the wife of Gustave Kallman, a fine violin player—and who gave popular concerts in this town some years ago, with her sister Rosina, is again singing in public after an education in Europe. She commenced to sing in Springfield a few nights hence.

SHIP BUILDING IN MATTAPOISETT.—This thriving village is taking a high rank among those places distinguished for their naval architecture. Several ships, of fine construction and elegant model have been launched there this season. In addition to these there are now at that place two ships upon the stocks. One of these, in the yard of Josiah Holmes & Son, is of about 400 tons burthen, and is contracted by Messrs. Charles R. Tucker & Co. of New Bedford. The other, in the yard of Wilson Barstow, is of somewhat smaller dimensions, and is built for Mr. Edward C. Jones, of New Bedford. In the same yard the keel of a ship of about 500 tons burthen has been laid, to be owned by Mr. Edmund Allen of Fairhaven. All these ships are intended for the whale fishery. In the harbor of Mattapoisett is now lying the bark R. L. Barstow, (called after her owner) nearly ready for sea. Although but 208 tons she is a perfect gem of ship building, being very short, clipper model, with good deck room, a good whaler'ship and fast sailer united. She was modelled and built by Mr. Cranford, of Newport, a young gentleman who at an early age has exhibited a remarkable talent in his profession.—She will be commanded by Capt. Taber, of Mattapoisett, and will sail in a few days for the South Atlantic.

Thus sixty-eight ships will be added to the whaling fleet of this port during the present season. While rejoicing at this proof of the wealth and enterprise of our community, we may also express a wish that the returns of such adventures may be commensurate with their magnitude.—New Bedford Mercury.

JACK ON THE FARM.—A Jack tar growing sick of his business deserted his ship, went into the country and hired himself to a farmer. He was immediately set to harrowing with a yoke of oxen and an old mare called Jin.—The sailor being wholly unacquainted with the management of the "locks," and "sheets" and "bowlines" of his old mare and oxen, in his first attempts to "put about" "missed stays," and, by turning the yoke, threw Jin and the oxen all down in a heap together. Jack, frightened with the confusion, bawled out for help. The farmer, in reply, asked the matter. "Matter! Matter enough, by conscience," replied Jack; "the harboard ox has got on the starboard side, old Jin has got foul in the devil peak foremost."

THE YANKEE POTHERING THE BRITISHERS.—Dr. J. V. C. Smith of Boston is a visitor at the great fair in London and gives a very interesting description of it in letters to the Boston Transcript. He states that Mr. A. C. Hobbs of New York is there, and that he created a sensation by picking, in fifteen minutes, with a crooked nail, what is called the Chubb lock.—Chubb being the name of the man, we presume, who invented it. It was believed in England that this lock could not possibly be picked, and the archives of the government and other valuables were entrusted to it for security. Mr. Hobbs offered $10,000 for the privilege of trying to open the lock of the safe in which Victoria's diamonds, valued at $10,000,000, is deposited nights at the fair—he to have the diamonds, we suppose in case he succeeded; but they dared not let him go near it with his crooked nail. A reward of two hundred guineas is offered to whoever will open an English padlock, and Mr. Hobbs intended to give it a try at his first leisure. Those acquainted with his extraordinary mechanical endowments believed that he would succeed.

Mr. Herring of New York is there with one of his counting room safes.—Over it are these words: "This contains two hundred sovereigns. The key is at the office of the U. S. Commissioner—at the service of any one, and the money shall be the reward of the person who opens it."

A Professor of Motion vulgarly called a dancing master—undertook to drive a lady out to Harry Jewell's Pleasure House, on the Rensselaerville Plank Road, the other day, when coming in contact with a carriage off flew the wheel of his vehicle, and down went the disciple of Terpsichore and his fair charge. "My dear!" said he, springing up again and making a chaise over the lady, "My dear! you are not hurt—are you?" "Not much," she said; "not much." "Curse it!" he said, "this comes from my bad driving." "Yes," said she, "I always knew you were excellent in a quadrille or polka, but I now find you are not to be beat in a break down!"—Albany Knicker.

Mr. Senator Hale ever loves a joke. During his appeal to the jury in the Hayden case, on Saturday, he referred to one of the colored witnesses as very black, as black as though he had been born in the great eclipse!

A lady one night at a party was much annoyed by the impertinent remarks of a coxcomb who sat near her; at length becoming tired and vexed, she turned towards him with an angry countenance, and said—"Be pleased, sir, to cease your unbecoming impertinence." The fellow was checked at so sudden a rebuke, and could only reply—"Pray, Miss, do not eat me." "Be in no fear," she replied, "I am a Jewess."

BLISS' JENNY LIND

HOT AIR COOKING RANGE.

IN presenting this Range to the public, the subscriber would call attention to its merits. He has been well convinced from his own observations that the public are in want of a Range with such improvements as will render it more perfect for all purposes of domestic utility and economy, than any now in the market. In the article which he now offers to the public for examination, he has (if he can place any reliance upon the assurance of experienced leaders in Ranges and Stoves, his customers and his own experience and observations) been successfully beyond his most sanguine expectations. The Oven is so constructed as to secure the certainty of the heat baking the bottom of all articles proper to be cooked in an oven. It is unnecessary to say to those who have used ranges, that no previous pattern has been so far from defect in this particular.

All parts of this Range is made the usual thickness.

It has been pronounced by competent judges, to be most beautiful and perfect in its appearance, of any Cooking Range of this country, with some advantages over many ranges that are made. It would call your attention

1st, To its general beauty and great strength of construction. Also, the quality of iron and the care and skill with which they are mounted. Also, notice the top which is so constructed as to prevent the least possible chance of breaking or burning out.

2d, The form of the fire chamber—a cylinder lined with soap-stone, or fire-brick, and known to be the best form of fire chamber in which to burn coal.

3d, Notice the front of the range, close tight, with a register in the ash-door, to give draft, which when closed makes the range perfectly air tight. Also, a new arrangement for dropping the grate from the outside, so that no dust can escape in the room.

4th, The simplicity of the arrangement; it having but one Damper, which manages the whole. Also, the convenience for cleaning the flues, and a convenient place to put the coal scuttle and a very large oven, of capacity enough to bake twelve pies. Also, a bath boiler, which can be heated by a side or back flue or a water back, and a new and improved hot-air fixture which will heat a room from 12 to fifteen feet square, with the same fire that is used in cooking. There are five sizes of these Ranges, all of them can be set with double ovens either No. 1, 2, 3 or 4, at the option of the purchaser.
